ABSTRACT:

a case of PUO came to me in OPD. He complained of Fever occurring after every 3-4 months and stays for 3 months since 2 years with 104 degree fever with extreme chills. This case was treated with individualized homoeopathic medicine in Chandigarh homeopathic medical college and hospital OPD for 5 months. Homoeopathic medicine arsenic album was given on the basis of individuality. The patient improved very well with the medicine. This case report suggests that correctly chosen homoeopathic medicine is very beneficial even in complicated cases.
