ABSTRACT:

Since, a very long period of time various kinds of methods of prescription and treatment are in use under the name of "HOMOEOPATHY". I mean to say that Master Hahnemann recommended that 'The prescription should be in form of single medicine and minimal dose format'. He also said in aphorism 76:- The diseases aroused due to long term use of allopathic medicines are pseudo-chronic diseases and they are very hard to cure and seems incurable. But, in the present time context this aphorism seems criticizing homoeopathy weirdly, as today very few numbers of patients choose homoeopathy as primary mode of treatment. They come for homoeopathic treatment just to testify it after long period of medication with allopathic medicines. And as we know, Hahnemann told these cases are incurable. So, what should we have to do then, leave them in vain? We can't deny them for treatment, its part of our duty. And for that reason many great pioneers of homoeopathic system modified the method of prescription and treatment in homoeopathic system according to their understanding
