

HEB

Journal of Prosthodontics Dentistry (JOPD)
An Official Publication of Bureau for Health & Education Status Upliftment
(Constitutionally Entitled As Health-Education, Bureau)

JOPD

Implant Supported Overdenture Using Customized Abutment -A Case Report

Sameera Y

Senior Lecturer, Department of Prosthodontics, Karpaga Vinayaga Institute of Dental Sciences, Chinnakolabakkam, Madhuranthagam, Kanchipuram Dt Tamil Nadu, India

Corresponding author:

Dr Sameera Y, Senior lecturer, Department of Prosthodontics, Karpaga Vinayaga Institute of Dental Sciences, Chinnakollambakkam, Madhuranthagam, Kanchipuram Dt Tamil Nadu, India. 603308

Correspondence Email ID: serviceheb@gmail.com

Abstract:

A mandibular overdenture supported by two implants is an cost effective treatment option for a maladaptive denture wearer. With ball attachment commonly practised, their parallelism plays a vital role in long term success. The following report describes the procedure to correct a nonparallel implant abutment to retain a mandibular overdenture using customized implant abutment.

Keywords: Implant overdenture, customized abutment, mandibular implant, complete denture

Running Title: Implant Supported Overdenture using Customized Abutment -A Case Report

Access this Article Online

Website: <http://heb-nic.in/jopd-issues/>

Quick Response Code:

Received on 21/07/2022

Accepted on 06/08/2022 © HEB All rights reserved

